~8th & 9th grade check-in will be at the main entrance, presentation will be in CHURCH

Here I am Lord begins on Thursday March 4th and goes through Sunday Masses on March 7th, 2010.

Here I Am Lord is a unique conference with over 50 religious communities that come to St. Patrick Parish to meet with the families of our community. In conjunction with the various programs and speakers, the vocation fair will run throughout the weekend. Come to programs to be inspired, but stay and meet the religious! And there is MORE...

Friday and Saturday Evening programs offer enrichment for all generations.

These programs are open to all families of St. Patrick. The tickets are complimentary BUT limited.

Friday Evening is titled "An Engaging Encounter".

It is more than a talk, it is a lived experience by the audience as they listen to the story of "Ray". Immediately following Ray will be a Eucharistic Holy Hour and Healing Service with Fr. Antoine Thomas from the Congregation of St. John.

Saturday Evening's program title is "Making our Faith Come Alive".

Dr. Dave Den Braber will inject his contagious passion and fun for living our faith in the real world. Following Dr. Dave will be a multi-media presentation by Sal Solo.

Come See, Hear and Experience "WE CRY JUSTICE".

If you are looking for Authentic Catholic Programs to enrich the Lenten experience for your family, consider the Here I Am Lord Conference. Tickets are available now, and are FREE!
